

Mantri Square invites moms of Bangalore to the 4th Edition of "Super Mom"

🕒 May 13, 2016 👤 admin 📁 General 💬 0

Mantri Square, Bangalore's ultimate shopping & entertainment destination has announced the 4th Edition of 'Super Mom'. The hunt for Bangalore's favorite "Super Mom" will start on the 6th of May 2016 with registrations taking place at various locations such as housing societies, salons and within the premises of the mall. Interested participants can also visit www.mantrisquare.com for registration. This special event will see mothers competing in various contests across different categories to make their way towards the big title which will be announced on the 29th of May 2016 at the mall.

Designed as a platform for mothers to showcase their talents, "Super Mom 4" invites mothers across all age groups to participate. 50 candidates will be shortlisted for the semifinals on the 28th of May 2016 and 15 will be selected for the finale on the 29th of May, 2016.

Judging the event this year will be prominent women from various walks of life. Speaking on the success and 4th edition of the contest, Mr. Majd Mashfej – Head-Mall Management, Procare said "This is our 4th edition and we are really excited to introduce some new elements this year. We at Mantri Square truly believe that mothers are an important part of our lives and we need to celebrate them and "Super Mom" was created to do just that. The event will give these heroes a platform to showcase their talents while having fun."

The winner will be awarded an all expense paid trip to Singapore for 4 days and 3 nights, while the runner up will win a domestic holiday, followed by a two wheeler prize for the second runner up.

Contest details:

Registration Date: 6th – 20th May, 2016

Venue: Mantri Square, Malleshwaram

Preliminary rounds: 21st & 22nd May, 2016

Venue: Mantri Square, Malleshwaram